WYBC Plans 'Election '66'

WYBC, in conjunction with the Ivy Network, has announced that it will cover Tuesday's national elections.

"Election '66" will begin at 7 tomorrow evening and last until 2 Wednesday morning. A pre-election summary will be presented tonight from 9 to 10.

The election coverage will be broadcast to 54 college radio stations throughout the US. Jay Feldman, 1968, head of the Ivy Network's News and Public Affairs Department, will produce the special coverage.

"Election '66" will originate from New York. A studio staff of 50 announcers, statisticians and engineers will back up 30 reporters scattered coast-to-coast throughout the country.

NEWS IN BRIEF

•WYBC ELECTION COVERAGE—The Ivy Radio Network series "Election Countdown '66" begins tonight at 9 on WYBC AM and FM with a report on this year's gubernatorial races.
